DEVELOPER ROLE

Incentivizing Developers

Reduced Water and Sewer

- Reduces water and sewer connection fees by 80%
- Units must be sold or rented to families at or below 80% AMI
- Units for sale must be less than VHDA maximum sale price
- Units for rent must have federal, state or local assistance that guarantees affordability
- 10 applications to date

50% fee reduction stimulus package

- From April 28 – October 28, 2009 Charlottesville reduced all permit fees for any residential new construction or addition that increased livable space by 50%.

Affordable Housing Regulation

Expedited review

- Partnership between City and Developers
- Because of developer support of Affordable Dwelling Unit Ordinance, any project with 5% affordable housing is guaranteed 3 week review period by City Staff

2008 HB 883 Enabling Legislation

- Authorizes Charlottesville to establish affordable housing contributions from developers as a condition of the approval of a special use application for residential, commercial, or mixed-use projects with a density equal to or greater than 1.0 FAR.
- Allows the developer to provide on-site Affordable Dwelling Units, off-site Affordable Dwelling Units, or a cash contribution to the city's affordable housing fund in lieu of providing the units.

Affordable Housing Regulation

Affordable Dwelling Unit Ordinance

- Mirrored on HB 833
- For residential or mixed-use projects with 1.0 FAR or greater, requires that 5% of total gross square footage shall be Affordable Dwelling Units
- Allows for off-site Affordable Dwelling Units
- Allows for a cash contribution of $2 per square foot
- Only applies to rezonings or special use applications
- Affordable Dwelling Unit means units committed for a 30-year term as affordable to households with incomes at 60% AMI or less

FUTURE DIRECTIONS

2025 Affordable Housing Strategy Report

- The report presented three options for the 2025 affordable housing goal, including the number of units needed to reach that goal, and anticipated local funding support.
 - Maintain Current Number of Affordable Units
 - Maintain the Current Ratio (10%) of Affordable Units
 - Increase Ratio of Affordable Units to 15%
- In February 2010 City Council adopted the goal to increase the ratio of supported affordable units to 15% of total housing units by 2025 for a total of 2,350 units to add or preserve at $25.7 million total or $1.7 million per year

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Housing Advisory Committee

- Members include City Councilor, Planning Commissioner, Developer, School Board Member, citizen and neighborhood representatives, realtor, banker, non-profit housing providers, non-profit service providers, Charlottesville Redevelopment and Housing Authority, Albemarle County, and the University of Virginia
